| Name of creator: | Maybole Benevolent Society |
| Administrative / Biographical history: | The Constitution of 1811 set out the aims of the Society as offering mutual benefit and support to its members in time of sickness thus "promoting one another's happiness". Numbers were restricted to 66 members, with a Preses [Head] to be appointed yearly on the 4th of March. There were 8 Masters acting on a Joint Committee, 2 Visiting Masters surveying the area of the Town and Kirklands of Maybole, a Treasurer, Clerk, and Officer. Subscription was one shilling and one penny uplifted quarterly. This rate could change depending on how many members needed assistance. Qualification for relief was granted to members who were sick or disabled for longer than 3 days, and were then judged eligible by a Visiting Master. Members would receive 5 shillings weekly if confined indoors, 2 shilling and sixpence if able to walk but unfit for work. Two pounds were offered towards funeral costs. |
